Luke 24: 13-21

Now that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven mile from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, asked him, "Are you the only one visiting Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?" "What things?" he asked "About Jesus of Nazareth," they replied. "He was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, it is the third day since all this took place. As they approached the village to which they were going, Jesus continued on as if he were going farther. But they urged him strongly, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening; the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and began to give it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him.

Hebrews 13:2

Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it.

Calling All Singers

If you have EVER or NEVER sung in the HUMC choir or any other choir for that matter, you are invited to sing in our 175th anniversary choir on July 11. We will have an organizational meeting at 9:30 AM on June 27 in the sanctuary. We will choose a song from the hymnal to be sung in parts with Yvonne providing a special arrangement. The choir will sing the benediction for the 8 AM service on July 11 and the introit for the 10:30 service. This will allow singers to attend only one service if desired, arriving just before the end of 8:00 service or leaving immediately after 10:30 introit. We are looking forward to seeing you on Sunday! If you have questions, contact Claudia Schneider at 812-866-4723.
