Prelude: March G. F. Handel

Announcements

Call to Worship: In unison

The voice of the Holy One flashes forth, filling the world with awe and delight. The God of light sits enthroned in holy splendor. The voice of the Holy One cries out, bathing the world in goodness and hope. The God of glory thunders, full of majesty. The voice of the Holy One calls to us from the waters, pouring out love in an endless stream. Let us worship God who calls us.

Hymn: # 145 Morning has Broken

First Scripture Lesson: Genesis 1: 1-5

"In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

Call to Offering: In unison

Rejoicing in the love which God has poured out on us, let us bring our gifts and offerings to the Holy One.

Offertory: Pastorale Gordon Young

Prayers of the People and Lord's Prayer

Second Scripture Lesson: Mark 1: 4-11

And so John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River. John wore clothing made of camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. And this was his message: "After me comes the one more powerful than I, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie. I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. Just as Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased."

Sending Forth: In unison

Go into the world as the light of Christ, pouring out love like a living stream. May the God who is love, bless you and make you a blessing to world yearning to know how to love. Amen.
